

In Greenville, Every Day is Kids' Day!

It's no secret that Greenville is a great place to raise a family. With so many family-friendly businesses, restaurants, and hangout spots, your options for spending a day out with your little ones are limitless. If you're looking for something special to do with the kids this weekend, here are a few of our top family-friendly picks.

Falls Park on the Reedy

Main Street and Camperdown Way

Falls Park is a favorite for local families. Not only is it a beautiful place to spend the day, but there's almost always something going on here. Admission to the park is free of charge, and free two-hour parking is located conveniently nearby. However, if you live in the area, we recommend riding bikes with your family for a fun experience.

Throughout the year, there are also a number of family-friendly festivals, concerts, and more inside the park for you and your kids to enjoy.

Gather GVL

126 Augusta St

This outdoor closed-in venue is a perfect place to take the family during the day. There is no shortage of entertainment with live music from the local area and throughout the U.S.

There's plenty of food that the kids will love as well as adult drink options for Mom and Dad. Located in downtown Greenville, this is also a great venue to walk or bike to.

Sully's Steamers

6 East Washington Street

While you're in the area of Falls Park, why not grab a bite to eat at Sully's Steamers? This family-friendly location is your one-stop shop for delicious steamed bagel sandwiches and a special kids menu with selections for even the pickiest of eaters.

If you decide to drive here, there are plenty of street parking spots available as well as convenient parking garages.

Swamp Rabbit Cafe and Grocery

205 Cedar Lane Road

Swamp Rabbit Cafe and Grocery is a great place to ride your bike and bring the kids. Here you'll find delicious and organic food from local farms, so you give back by shopping local. There's even a fenced-in play area for your kids to enjoy while you shop around.

Throughout the year, they hold a variety of special events, ranging from cooking classes to fitness classes and more. This is definitely a more enjoyable way to grocery shop with your kids.

The Children's Museum

300 College Street

Rain or shine, The Children's Museum is a great place to spend the afternoon with the family. As the 7th largest children's museum in the nation, there are 19 different exhibit galleries to experience, giving kids of all ages the opportunity to learn about the arts, health and wellness, science, and more.

They also offer special programs and camps throughout the year that encourage curiosity and learning through interactive play.

Escape Artist Greenville

209 E Stone Ave

Escape Artist Greenville is the perfect activity for a family with kids who think they are all grown up. They are Greenville's original escape room location and they even develop and design their own puzzles and games.

Escape Artist Greenville offers many different themes that will keep you coming back for more. There is convenient parking behind the building so you can easily access the rooms.
